Announcement Week In Carpets and Draperies

pery, being a soft fabric of for the Spring. Those stocks are of Carpets, Upholsteries and Wall Papers. Those three general titles cover almost an in-

The demand of late years for artistic harmonies in interior furnishing has made large stocks imperative for those whose ambition it is to be prepared to satisfy the requirements of any taste or set of conditions. So you may come expecting to find real immensity.

The three stocks are reflections of each other. The tone of this carpet has its over-tone in that drapery,—the dominant note in the color scheme of this rug has its harmonies completed in that wall paper,-and so it goes through the whole floor. The purpose is to secure to you a continuity of idea;—to furnish you completion in your plans without

An idea of the Carpet stock may be gathered from the fact that close to fifteen hundred patterns are on view, and that the stock in straw mattings contains close to three hun-

As a practical illustration of the powers of this floor to give you the Home Beautiful, we have built on our fourth floor a home a la Manhattan,—that is, a flat,—and furnished it. This is something worth coming to see, if you are a lover of beautiful things, or if you are curious to know how beautiful a flat may be made.

Spain's Grip on America

Within the present century Spain owned three-fourths of the territory now the United States, and substantially everything between us and the South Pole.

Bit by bit her American soil has been wrenched from her, till now her trembling fingers clutch on little else than Cuba.

ON the third floor, three allied stocks have spread their finest for the Spring. Those stocks are of Carnets Unbelsteries. American States. Ridpath tells the story,-succinctly, graphically. A single evening is sufficient to learn the whole story of Spaniards in America.
